

KAMEHAMEHAS AGAIN.

They Defeat the Crescents In Saturday's Ball Game.

At the end of the first inning of Saturday's ball game, it looked very much as though the Kamehamehas were going to suffer defeat. The Crescents had piled up four runs, and were jubilant over their success with Meheula's curves. Their joy was short lived however, for the crack pitcher soon got down to work, and did not allow the Crescents to make but one more run during the game, while the students made three in the second, three in the fifth and one more in the seventh.

After the first inning, it seemed almost impossible for even the crack hitters of the Crescents to reach the ball. They were retired with amazing regularity, and a number of strikeouts went to Meheula's credit. Several times during the latter part of the game, a base hit would at least have tied the score, but they could not get it, and seven to five was near victory as they could come.

This was especially so in the eighth inning. The score was seven to four. Holt got his base on balls, and Baker hit safe to right. Carter and Wilder were put out and Lishman got first on an error. This left three men on bases, and a long hit would have made the score even. Pahau, at this critical stage of the game, let a ball pass him, and Holt came home. Baker also tried to get in, but was caught at the home plate and put out. This practically ended the game and the Kamehameha boys in the grand stand shouted themselves hoarse.

The following is the score:

NOTES OF THE GAME.

The Kamehameha boys in the grand stand are becoming a nuisance. They keep up a continual yelling and do not give any one else a chance to even hear the umpire's decisions. Several patrons of the game have said that if their noise is not stopped, they would discontinue going to the games. The Crescents had a new pitcher in the box in the person of George Wood. He did effective work, and struck out several of the students' heavy hitters. It is said that the reason Jock Carter struck out so many times was that he had just received a new bat from the Coast on the Australia, and did not notice that there was a big round hole in it until after the game. The Hawaii's and Kamehamehas will cross bats next Saturday.

COURT NOTES.

Joseph Caecires convicted of murder in the second degree, has been sentenced to twenty years imprisonment at hard labor.

Ben Gallagher for mayhem was sentenced to be imprisoned at hard labor six months and pay a fine of five dollars and costs taxed at $18.50.

Judge Cooper has heard the demurrer filed in the divorce case of Henri G. McGrew by C. L. Carter, his guardian, vs. Alphonsine McGrew. The respondent claims that the statute does not allow a guardian in this country to come into Court and ask for a decree of divorce but that the statute may allow it to a libellant against the party alleged to be a non compos mentis. The question is a novel one in this country, there having been no divorce granted in the nature of the one now pending before the Circuit Court. A. S. Hartwell for libellant, C. W. Ashford for libellee.

Hon. J. Hardy has been reappointed as Circuit Judge for the Fifth Circuit in the Island of Kauai, his commission dating from the 17th instant. Under the new Judiciary law, the appointment is for six years. Formerly it was only for four years.

The will of the late A. Tyler of Molokai has been filed in the Clerk's office, and the testator has left all his personal estate to one J. M. Maunaloa, who took care of the testator while in Molokai. The will was admitted to probate by Judge Kekoikai of Maui on the 5th instant.

If King Solomon was alive he would now say: "Go to the traveling man, learn his ways, and be wise." Mr. C. W. Battell, a Cincinnati traveling man representing the Queen City Printing Ink Co., after suffering intensely for two or three days with lameness of the shoulder, resulting from rheumatism, completely cured it with two applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This remedy is gaining a wide reputation for its prompt cures of rheumatism, lame back, sprains, swellings, and lameness. 50 cent bottles are for sale by all Medicine Dealers. PLEA FOR CHINESE.

A Correspondent Claims the Ballot For Them.

MR. EDITOR: Will you kindly grant me space to partially reply to your editorials of today's issue, (May 18th), captioned "The Hand of Esau" and "With Us, But Not of Us?"

In regard to the first editorial, I trust that I have, in this evening's Star, unattached responsibilities innocently attached to the burthens of others.

Your authoritative statement that the Provisional Government "is possessed of all the powers of a sovereign de facto and de jure, and has full authority to treat upon equal terms with the Chinese or any other empire" can scarcely be sustained by the professors of the German schools or of the more modern creature educationists of Washington, St. James, Berlin, Vienna and Paris, or the astute diplomats of China and Japan.

The recognized distinction between a de facto and a de jure Government is so broad that, even in these days of arbitration, peace at any price, and conciliatory influences on behalf of the stronger against the weaker, it has not yet been materially disturbed.

Taking our own Government for an example, to combine the two terms and forces, absolute success must crown revolutionary attempts and sequent recognition ensue. At present the Provisional Government, as its very name imports, is but a transitional though a de facto one.

Upon the adoption of a constitution, ratified by the people or enforced with sufficient authority, and the organization of the necessary departments attached to the functions of a well-ordered Government, de jure is wedded to de facto.

In your second editorial your claim appears to be that the Chinese have "no qualifications for the franchise beyond the bare fact that they have taxable property within the limits and subject to the jurisdiction of the Hawaiian Islands."

The statement appears somewhat paradoxical. The "bare fact" of having a few millions of vested interests in a country, which enhance the revenues by taxation and other contributions to the Government, is not worthy of consideration in the formulating of a scheme of Government in which so many races are concerned, all anxious to do their share in making it permanent and prosperous? Is that the construction you desire your intelligent readers to place upon your words? Do you desire taxation without representation or would you prefer that when privileges are denied the revenue shall decrease? Have the naturalized Chinese no rights? The constitution of 1887 denied the franchise to them. Will the Constitutional Convention of 1894 do them the courtesy to consider the question?

If the Chinese do not possess the right of franchise in their own country, is it not the proud boast of Hawaii nei that the American missionaries reclaimed it from barbarism. While planting the young tree of Republican liberty on these islands scatter them, a few Chinese missionary acorns in the great Empire beyond the seas and instead of Bibles and mortgages present them with the principles of the undying right of manhood suffrage, limited to those competent to value it.
